

Supplier Recognition Awards 2013

NMI wish to congratulate the firms, who are shown above, as they were voted to be the top ten suppliers in 2013 within our sector. Maintaining a high performing infrastructure is essential to enable a high performing electronics sector within the UK, these organisations are the ones that are leading the charge!

The top ten suppliers were identified by asking our manufacturing sites to rate all NMI Supplier members in the following areas:

- Customer Responsiveness
 - Quality of Products
 - Criticality of Product to Business
- Continuous Improvement Activities to Improve Products or Services

NMI SUPPLIER OF THE YEAR 2013
